Chooses spells from the Dragon Magic spell list. Advances in attack throws as a Mage, +2 every 6. Cannot cleave.

The Dragonborn Sorcerer may not look like a dragonborn, but the blood of dragonkin courses through his veins. The magical powers he weilds come from within, the raw magic of dragon-kind, not arcane bindings. Sorcerers have no need for books nor scrolls, though their familiarity with magic allows them to use wands, staffs, and scrolls as a mage or cleric of their level. Instead, at each level, they choose their spells from the Dragonborn Magic spell list at once, but can never change them. They cannot research spells or scribe scrolls, nor grant unlife, but may create magical items like a mage.
